Synopsis

AICOCK reports on disturbances in Lavrion and on British recruiting activities there.

Account of Developments

1. There were three contacts between AICOCK and [] at the HTNEIGH apartment on 21 April, 28 April and 5 May. The 14 May contact was not made as a result of [] order that Albanian refugees are not to appear in Athens until after Tito's visit. In addition to the usual information concerning arrivals, departures, and messages from Lavrion all of which were passed on to [], there was only one other noteworthy event. This event was another knife fight which took place on 27 April between Emin Lamee (Independent) who called the Agrarians Communists, whereupon Hasan Ditari obtained a knife and began using it. (However, the Agrarian's version of the fracas has it that Hasan did not begin wielding a knife until struck in the head with an iron pipe). At any rate an innocent bystander, Ramadan Kelmeni, who tried to stop the fight was stabbed in the hand. At present Lamee, Ditari and Xhelo Kociu, who handed Ditari the knife, are all in the Lavrion prison, while Kelmeni has just been released from the hospital. Things seem to have calmed down and no further repercussions are expected.

2. On 5 May AICOCK reported GADUD and GADUFFER have been propositioned (but have not yet accepted) by the British. These two former Throttler members also notified us of this fact by message. Hysni Kurbeja has mysteriously disappeared from the camp and the rumor is that he has been recruited by the British. AICOCK at present is trying to determine who the British recruiting agent is in Lavrion.

3. AICOCK also reported on 5 May that the Alla brothers and GACCENT are spreading anti-American propaganda, citing Apple Team as an example of the way the Americans run their teams. [] has consequently asked [] to check on the activities of the above individuals.
